Here is what some of our dad grads have said...

"...this course has taught me so many better ways to manage and be more involved in my children's lives...it has been a life changing experience...I felt supported by the group and feel that I have grown as a person through this program...I am happy to have learned how my actions will affect my kids ... I suggest that anyone who wants to be a better parent and just learn more stuff about parenting take this group. This program is like a book that you can read again and again and always find something new to learn and understand."
